

Reel Window

Reel Window is a library of connections between Hitchcock's classic Rear Window and films released from 1955 onward.

We hope you enjoy the view.

ENTER

original scenes

references

my collections

infographics

original scenes

references

my collections

infographics

☐ spoof

☐ serious

☐ animated

☐ live action

☐ domestic

☐ foreign

L.B. Jefferies Picks Up the Camera

L.B. Jefferies becomes intrigued with Thorwald when he leaves his home in the pouring rain several times in one night. This sparks his curiosity and begins his quest for answers.

#2

42:08

52 sec

most referenced

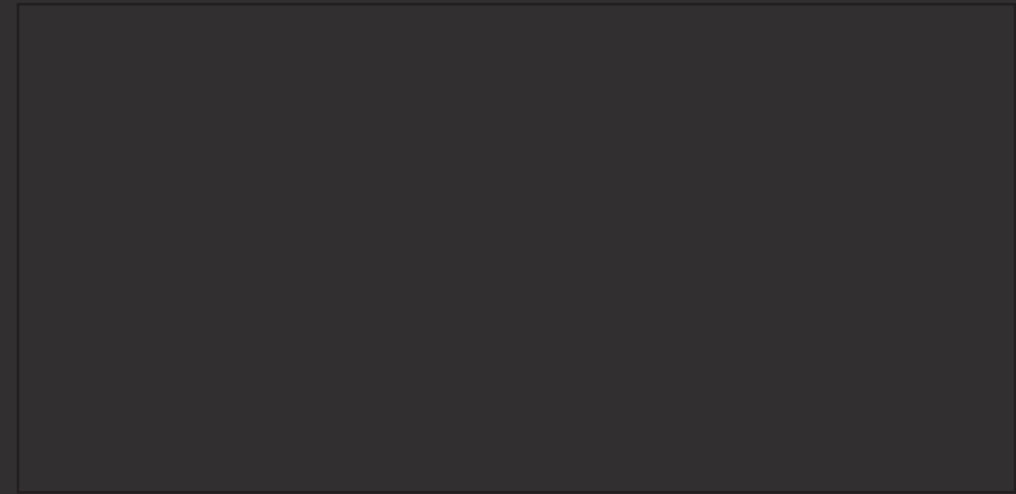

time of scene

length of scene

L.B. Jefferies Picks Up the Camera

L.B. Jefferies becomes intrigued with Thorwald when he leaves his home in the pouring rain several times in one night. This sparks his curiosity and begins his quest for answers.

American Beauty: Jane's Window

Jane begins to fall for her admirer as he records her through her bedroom window with a camera.

88%

rotten
tomatoes

2hr 2min

run time

R

rating

original scenes

references

my collections

infographics

☐ spoof ☐ serious ☐ animated ☐ live action ☐ domestic ☐ foreign

original scenes

references

my collections

infographics

original scenes

references

my collections

infographics

original scenes

references

my collections

infographics

log in

sign up

original scenes

references

my collections

infographics

create account

name _____

username _____

password _____

email _____

original scenes

references

my collections

infographics

log in

username

password